Week 3

Please remember to label all items of clothing!

WELL DONE !

Lily in reception who has cut and donated 10 inches of her hair to the Little Princess Trust Charity which provide real hair wigs, free of charge, to children and young people who have lost their own hair through cancer treatment and other conditions

Saplings

Saplings bookings will now close 3 hours before the start of each session.

This is to ensure that there is correct catering & staffing in place for each session

ECO COMMITTEE EVENT!

Part of our eco-committee 'Team Marine', met last week to discuss ideas to promote clean rivers. Following a brilliant visit from the Yorkshire Dales Rivers Trust and their mobile classroom, the committee decided they would like to raise funds to support the trust. The committee are very excited about promoting and supporting the protection of our rivers and streams. Clean Rivers Week starts next week (commencing 6th March) with the following events and activities.

Ongoing during the week...

Eco story - write the ending competition (to be introduced in assembly).

Artwork competition (to be introduced in assembly).

Wednesday 8th March - 'Wear the Ocean' (or just wear blue/green)

Thursday 9th March - Stalls after school in the playground (Cakes, Bring and Buy, Information and Homemade/Recycled items)

Friday 10th March - Competition winners announced in assembly

These are the children's ideas and they will be working hard to get their stalls ready but as always we appreciate your support.

We will be grateful for

- donations for the bring and buy stall (any preloved toys, games or books).*
- Cakes, biscuits and buns (shop bought or homemade) to be brought to school on Wednesday or Thursday)*
- Wear something blue or green on Wednesday and donate £1.*

Once again, thank you for your support,

The Eco Committee - Protectors of the Planet.
